Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

Monday, November 25*th*, 1745. [Numb. 609]

LONDON, July 23.

ON Tuesday last Lieutenant Phillips, late of the Anglesea Man of War, was shot on Board the Princess Royal at Spithead, pursuant to a Sentence of a Court-Martial.

July 26 According to private Letters from different Parts of France, there has happen'd lately a most dreadful Tempest in Britanny, which lasted for a whole Week, and did such prodigious Mischief, that no less than 80 Villages are totally ruin'd by it.

The States General have actually resolved upon sending a Reinforcement to the Army of the Allies, and the States of Holland have agreed to borrow Six Millions of Florins in several Sums, and by three different Methods

August 1. On Tuesday Morning the Southwell Privateer, Capt. Purnell, and the Sheerness Privateer, Capt. Furnell, returned to Bristol from a Cruize, in which, off Ushant, they fell in with two large Frigates, of 36 Guns each, and a large Merchant Ship, from St. Malo for Cadiz; the last pursued her Voyage, but the other Two lay by, and engag'd the two Privateers for six Hours, Yard Arm and Yard Arm, in a most furious Manner; Capt. Furnell, his Master, and 12 of his Men were kill'd, and 40 wounded; on board the Southwell 15 Men were kill'd, and 35 wounded, several of them very dangerously; the Frenchmen run first, and the English Privateers, being so shatter'd, could not pursue them.

By Letters from the Mediterranean we have Advice, that the Dartmouth Privateer near Cadiz, chased and destroyed four Polacres, and drove on shore near the Streight's Mouth, two large French Ships, whereupon their Crews set them on Fire; they were bound from Cadiz, for Marseilles.

We hear from Flanders, that five Regiments of Austrian Hussars had joined the Allied Army there

August 3. We hear, that Transports are ordered to Zealand to be there in Readiness to bring over 10,000 of our Troops, if there should be Occasion for them

The beginning of next Week Col Lascelles, and several other Officers, will set out for Scotland.

Six large Colliers are taken into the Government's Pay, and are fitting up with all Expedition, for Transports, to carry Men, Ammunition and Provision to Cape Breton.

August 6. This Morning arrived a Mail from Lisbon, by which we have Advice, that the Harwich Privateer of London, of 40 Guns, Capt James Sampson, has taken and carried into Lisbon the 16th of July O. S. a French Prize of 36 Carriage Guns and 250 Men, bound from Martinico, which she took after a most Obstinate Fight of 12 Hours, in which the Harwich had 12 Men killed and 40 Wounded; she is esteem'd a rich Prize.

We hear that the three Spanish Men of War, who lay to intercept the homeward bound Ships from India, are all lost.

By Letters from Petersburg of the 20th of last Month we find the Court not much taken up with Foreign Affairs, all their Attention being turn'd to the Discovering the Authors of a Conspiracy which was on the Point of being put into Execution. Above 80 Persons of different Ranks and Conditions are already committed to Prison on Account of this Plot.

The Body of Hanoverian Troops which encamp'd within Reach of the Allied Army, when it was assembled upon the Lahne, is gone since into its Quarters, in Westphalia, without the least Appearance of an approaching March

This Morning came Advice, that the Anna Catharina, from Eustatia, was arrived in the Downs, in which Ship is come Passenger Capt. Charles Knowles, late Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Ships in the Leeward Islands.

We hear that 2 French Men of War with 12 sail of Transports, lie ready to sail from the Isle of Day to Canada.

Aug. 8. Yesterday was shipp'd at the Tower 12,000 Arms for Scotland, and we hear about 100 Warrants are gone down to that Kingdom, to secure several Suspicious Persons there.

Sir William Pepprell, Bart is to be made a Brigadier General, and likewise to have a Regiment given him; we hear the said Gentleman is going on some other Enterprize.

Particular Advices from the Mosel Army before Dendermond, of the 8th, N.S. import, that a Courier Extraordinary arrived that Morning and deliver'd a Packet into his Majesty's own Hand who upon opening of it, said to an Officer in Company, 'Tis done I am fully satisfied of the Event of the German Election. Who, or from whence this important Courier came, is not so much as hinted at.

'Tis reported that an Order was gone from the Court of France, to lay an Embargo on all Shipping in the several Ports of that Kingdom.

The Lords of the Regency having receiv'd Information that the eldest Son of the Pretender lately imbark'd in France, in order to land in some Part of his Majesty's Kingdoms, on Tuesday Night a Proclamation was publish'd by their Order, offering a Reward of 30,000*l* to any Person who shall seize and secure the said eldest Son of the Pretender, in case he shall land, or attempt to land, in any of his Majesty's Dominions belonging to the Crown of Great Britain.

All Advices agree that the French are determined to make the brisk'est Attempt to recover Cape Breton; and that they have engaged the Court of Spain to undertake another Expedition, which some imagine is against some of our American Colonies; but 'tis scarce to be credited, as the Men of War design'd for their Convoy are only victualled for two Months Six Thousand old Troops commanded by Officers of great Experience, are marching to embark at Cadiz, where likewise they have put on board a surprizing Number of Arms, and other Military Stores.

The two Ships from the South Seas, lately taken by two Bristol Privateers fought 6 Hours, both their Captains were kill'd, one of them would have perswaded his Lieutenant to have blown up the Ship, but he refus'd it, saying that he would fight her as long as she could swim, and then dilliver her up like a Man of Honour: Since the last Accounts there has been Discoveries made of considerable Effects to the Value of 145 000*l*

August 13 On Saturday last 24 Pieces of Brass Cannon, on which is engraved these Words, Cape Breton, were shipp'd at Woolwich for the Use of that Place. At the same Time 24 Artificers, 6 Gunners and 8 Bombardiers, were draughted out of the Train, who will speedily embark for Cape Breton

The Government will give Encouragement of 10 Pounds a piece to such Women as are inclinable to go to be married, and live at Cape Breton, and a piece of Ground to such Children as may be born in such Wedlock; a vast Number of Women have already been to the proper Office in the Tower to enter their Names; they receive 4 Pound here to buy proper Conveniences, and 6 Pound more when they arrive at Place

Aug. 17 Last Night about a Quarter after seven, arrived an Express, with Dispatches of Importance from Berwick upon Tweed

Admiral Warren is appointed Governor of Cape Breton, and the Commission is dispatched to that Island.

The first Troop of Life Guards have Orders to be ready to march at an Hour's Warning. And

All

All Officers belonging to his Majesty's Land Forces serving in England or Scotland, are ordered to repair to their respective Posts immediately.

BOSTON, October 7.

By Capt. John Rouse who arrived at Louisbourg, the 24th of Sept. in 28 Days from Great Britain, we have Advice, That on the Arrival of Capt. Montague, who went Express with the News of the Surrender of Louisbourg, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty made him a present of 500 Guineas; and that great Rejoicing had been made through all the Kingdom That Advice thereof was forthwith sent to his Majesty at Hanover; who thereupon expressed the highest Satisfaction, and commanded it to be signified to the Commanders and others who were instrumental therein; And in Testimony how acceptable this important Acquisition is to his Majesty, a Patent was sent from Hanover creating Mr Pepperell a Baronet of Great Britain; and it is said he is also to command a Regiment on the British Establishment: Mr. Warren is also made Rear Admiral of the Blue, and recommended by the Lords Justices to be Governor of the Place, and his Commission therefore will be sent over by the next Opportunity. His Grace the Duke of Newcastle has in a most affectionate Manner express'd the just Sense the Nation has of the Service of the New England Troops; that it will reflect everlasting Honour on the Country; and happening when Affairs in Europe were in so bad a Situation it will still the more endear them to his Majesty: It is certain, that 2000 regular Troops will embark from Europe this Fall, with 100 Pieces of Cannon, Powder and other warlike Stores, sufficient for the Defence of that Place; which is also a strong Proof of its Importance. The Admiral to encourage the Settlement thereof is determined to keep Bullion enough to give a Currency. And as it is situated so advantageously for the Fishery, is is not doubted but People will find it for Interest to settle there

BOSTON, October 15.

A Letter from Lisbon of the 14th of September, says, that before that Time, they expected Admiral Medley was sail'd from Gibraltar with 12 Men of War, and two Regiments of Soldiers, for Louisbourg; and that the Reason of his so hasty Departure with such a Naval Force, was a Report that the French had sent a Squadron of Men of War to the American Seas.

CHARLES-TOWN, November 25.

By Capt. Green last Week arriv'd from Providence, we learn, that Capt. Fennel in Concert with Capt. Purcell, had lately taken and sent in there, Two small Spanish Schooners, of considerable Value, one of them having 7000 Pieces of Eight on board.

His Majesty's Ship the Tartar, commanded by Capt Ward return'd from her Cruize since our last, having met no Enemies.

Capt. James just arrived from Bristol in 8 Weeks, brings Advice, that the Pretender's eldest Son was in Possession of the Castle of Edinburgh, and there was crown'd and proclaim'd KING OF SCOTLAND; and that the English Army in Flanders was return'd from thence, with 6000 Dutch —We have neither Time nor Room to say any more.

A fine Ship is fitting out here for a Privateer, to be commanded by Capt. Clement Lampree, a Gentleman of known Courage.
